Halloween Trick-Or-Treat Liability and Indemnification Agreement

_____ (hereinafter referred to as “Trick-Or-Treater”) agrees not to sue, harass, egg, or toilet paper _____ (hereinafter referred to as “Benefactor”) or Benefactor’s property for providing delicious Halloween treats at no cost to Trick-or-Treater.

Trick-Or-Treater acknowledges and understands that no warranty, either expressed or implied, is made by Benefactor as to the nutritional content of the goody. This document is offered in order to duly warn Trick-Or-Treater that unforeseeable risks of harm may lurk in the Kit Kats, Charms Blow Pops, Milky Ways, Reese’s Peanut Butter Cups, Starbursts, Hershey’s Kisses, M&Ms, Laffy Taffy, caramel apples, and any or all other comestibles that may be offered.

Trick-Or-Treater is hereby informed that Benefactor’s snacks may contain any or all of the following: calories, carbohydrates, fat, sugar or high fructose corn syrup, peanuts, and marshmallow goo.

Trick-Or-Treater acknowledges that overeating may incur risks including, but not limited to, ruining dinner, tummy aches, nougat stuck in braces, sugar highs, sticky fingers, and chocolate-stained clothes.

Trick-Or-Treater hereby holds harmless Benefactor from all liability for personal injury suffered by Trick-Or-Treater, which may be caused, in whole or in part, by any element or agent of Benefactor’s candies. Trick-Or-Treater agrees that neither he/she, nor his/her parents, Little League coaches, or piano teachers will sue Benefactor or his/her agents for any injury that Trick-Or-Treater suffers, in whole or in part, from consuming edibles collected from Benefactor’s premises. This indemnification includes an agreement not to haul Benefactor into court on the basis of:

- 1) Failure to warn of potential for overeating because candy is delicious and provided free of cost;
- 2) Failure to provide nutritional information or adequate educational information on exercise recommendations;
- 3) Failure to state that candy corn does not contain actual corn;
- 4) Failure to warn the lactose intolerant away from Milk Duds;
- 5) Failure to offer “healthier alternatives,” “organic carob,” or “lame treats no kid wants”; and
- 6) Failure to provide information about other venues offering alternative, “healthier” Halloween goodies.

TRICK-OR-TREATER INDEMNIFIES AND RELEASES BENEFACTOR FROM ALL LIABILITY. TRICK-OR-TREATER HAS READ THIS DOCUMENT AND UNDERSTANDS IT. HE/SHE IS SIGNING IT FREELY AND VOLUNTARILY AND WITHOUT DURESS, AND AGREES NOT TO APPEAR AS A WITNESS IN SUPPORT OF JOHN “SUE THE BASTARDS” BANZHAF, ESQ., OR ANY OTHER PERSONS WITH LAW DEGREES WHO CANNOT OTHERWISE FIND MEANINGFUL EMPLOYMENT, AT ANY TIME IN THE FUTURE.
